

Nominations to the Board

Two positions on the RUSA Board of Directors will become available at the end of the year. Mike Dayton, who was appointed to fill out the term of Cecil Reniche-Smith, has reached the end of his term and is eligible for re-election. Jennifer Wise has reached the end of her term and is not eligible for re-election. Members may nominate two current RUSA members to run for those two positions. The General Membership List is available for viewing online at www.rusa.org. Please use this form to submit your nominations.

Nominations for RBA Representative to the RUSA Board

Under RUSA's Constitution the Regional Brevet Administrators appoint one of the current RBAs to serve as an elected Director on RUSA's board. The elected RBA may not already be serving on the board. Only RBAs can nominate other RBAs. The term of office for the Director is one year. Colorado RBA John Lee Ellis currently holds the office and is eligible for reelection.

The list of current RBAs is available for viewing online at www.rusa.org. Please use this form to submit your nominations for RBA representative on the RUSA Board.
